Wichita is the largest city in the state of Kansas. Located in the south-central portion of the state, the MSA consists of over 640,000 people in a four-county area. The city has a strong history in the aviation industry and is home to Spirit Aero Systems, Beechcraft, Cessna and Hawkler, not to mention home base to Koch Industries.

The east side of the Wichita market has long been the established area for upscale residential -Eastborough neighborhood, whose median household income is over $134,000 - and the dominant retail corridor of Rock Road. In addition to the only Costco in the market, key shopping areas include:

Towne East Square is the dominant, enclosed shopping mall in Wichita and surrounding communities. The mall is anchored by Dillard's, JCPenney, and Von Maur and totals over 1.1 million sf of GLA. With over 85 small shops and restaurants the center recently opened Round1.2 Entertainment Center.

Eastgate Shopping Center is a major power center located just south and east of Towne East Square. With over 300,000 sf, the center is anchored with Burlington, Ross, TJ Maxx, Office Max, and Aldi.

Bradley Fair, Wichita's first open-air lifestyle center is just north of Towne East Square. Trader Joe's, Barnes & Noble, Sephora are just a few of the many stores in this 280,000 sf shopping and dining district.

In the past few years, Wichita has added such new attractions to the area to include the Wichita Sports Forum, a 148,000 sf multi-sports venue, Stryker Sports Complex, and a new baseball stadium home to the Florida Marlins AAA team the Wichita Wind Surge. Old Town has become a favorite dining and entertainment district.

In addition to two private institutions of higher education, Wichita is home to Wichita State University with an enrollment of over 15,000 students.
